The best spots in the Grenadines

Please note that the skipper adapts the trip to the wind, weather and sea conditions, always prioritizing safety and the best possible sessions.

01

MAYREAU

The smallest inhabited island.

A windward lagoon, ideal for progression and a downwinder to Union Island.

Local beach bars, fresh lobster and spectacular views from the hilltop village.

02

TOBAGO CAYS

A Caribbean must-see.

Lagoons and small waves.

Turtles, rays, birds and iguanas, plus some of the best snorkeling in the region.

03

UNION ISLAND

Flat water at Happy Island and waves near Palm Island.

A few bars, restaurants, shops and a local market.

04

FREGATE

Clear water and offshore wind, with safety boat support.

Ideal for improving your skills and enjoying downwind sessions in shallow turquoise water.

05

MOPION

A tiny sandbank surrounded by coral reefs.

Advanced riders can enjoy the lagoon, while intermediate riders can explore beyond the reef with support from the catamaran.

The perfect place to end the day with a sunset drink near Petit St Vincent.

Life aboard the catamarans

- 4 cabins with a private bathroom, shower and toilet
- 2 crew cabins at the front of the boat
- Double beds, shared for individual bookings, plus personal storage
- Bright indoor spaces, a shaded cockpit and deck

- Sunbeds around the cockpit and at the bow and stern
- Solar panels and a watermaker
- Starlink internet throughout the boat
- Shaded cockpit
- Wind-sheltered shaded deck

Life on board

3 freshly prepared meals a day

The chef cooks with seasonal fruit and vegetables and local ingredients, going ashore each day to shop for the freshest food.

During each stopover

- Explore the island or join the chef at the market
- Visit local villages and beach bars
- Swim or snorkel near the anchorage

Optional: lobster dinner in the Tobago Cays, around €60 per person.

BEFORE YOU GO

Stopovers and packing

When the catamaran anchors near an island, the skipper takes the chef ashore to buy fresh local ingredients for the next meals.

Meanwhile, guests can:

Explore the island and stroll through local villages

Enjoy a drink at a beach bar

Swim and snorkel

Pack light

Bring a soft bag. Hard-shell suitcases are difficult to store on the catamaran.

SUN PROTECTION

SPF 50 reef-safe sunscreen, hat and lycra

CLOTHING

Boardshorts or bikini, T-shirts, flip-flops and a light sweater

ON-BOARD PRODUCTS

Natural shampoo and soap, reusable water bottle

ESSENTIAL

A passport is required to enter the Grenadines

BEYOND THE SESSIONS

Even more to experience

MARINE PARK

- Snorkel with turtles and rays
- Spot iguanas on the beaches

ON THE ISLANDS

- Villages, wild scenery and beach bars
- Discover the Caribbean way of life

ON BOARD

- Learn the basics of sailing, try SUP and use the snorkeling gear
- Fishing, board games, music and sunsets
- Relax on shaded sunbeds and enjoy spectacular sunsets

Practical information

Eastern Caribbean dollar (EC)

1 EUR

≈ 3 EC

1 USD

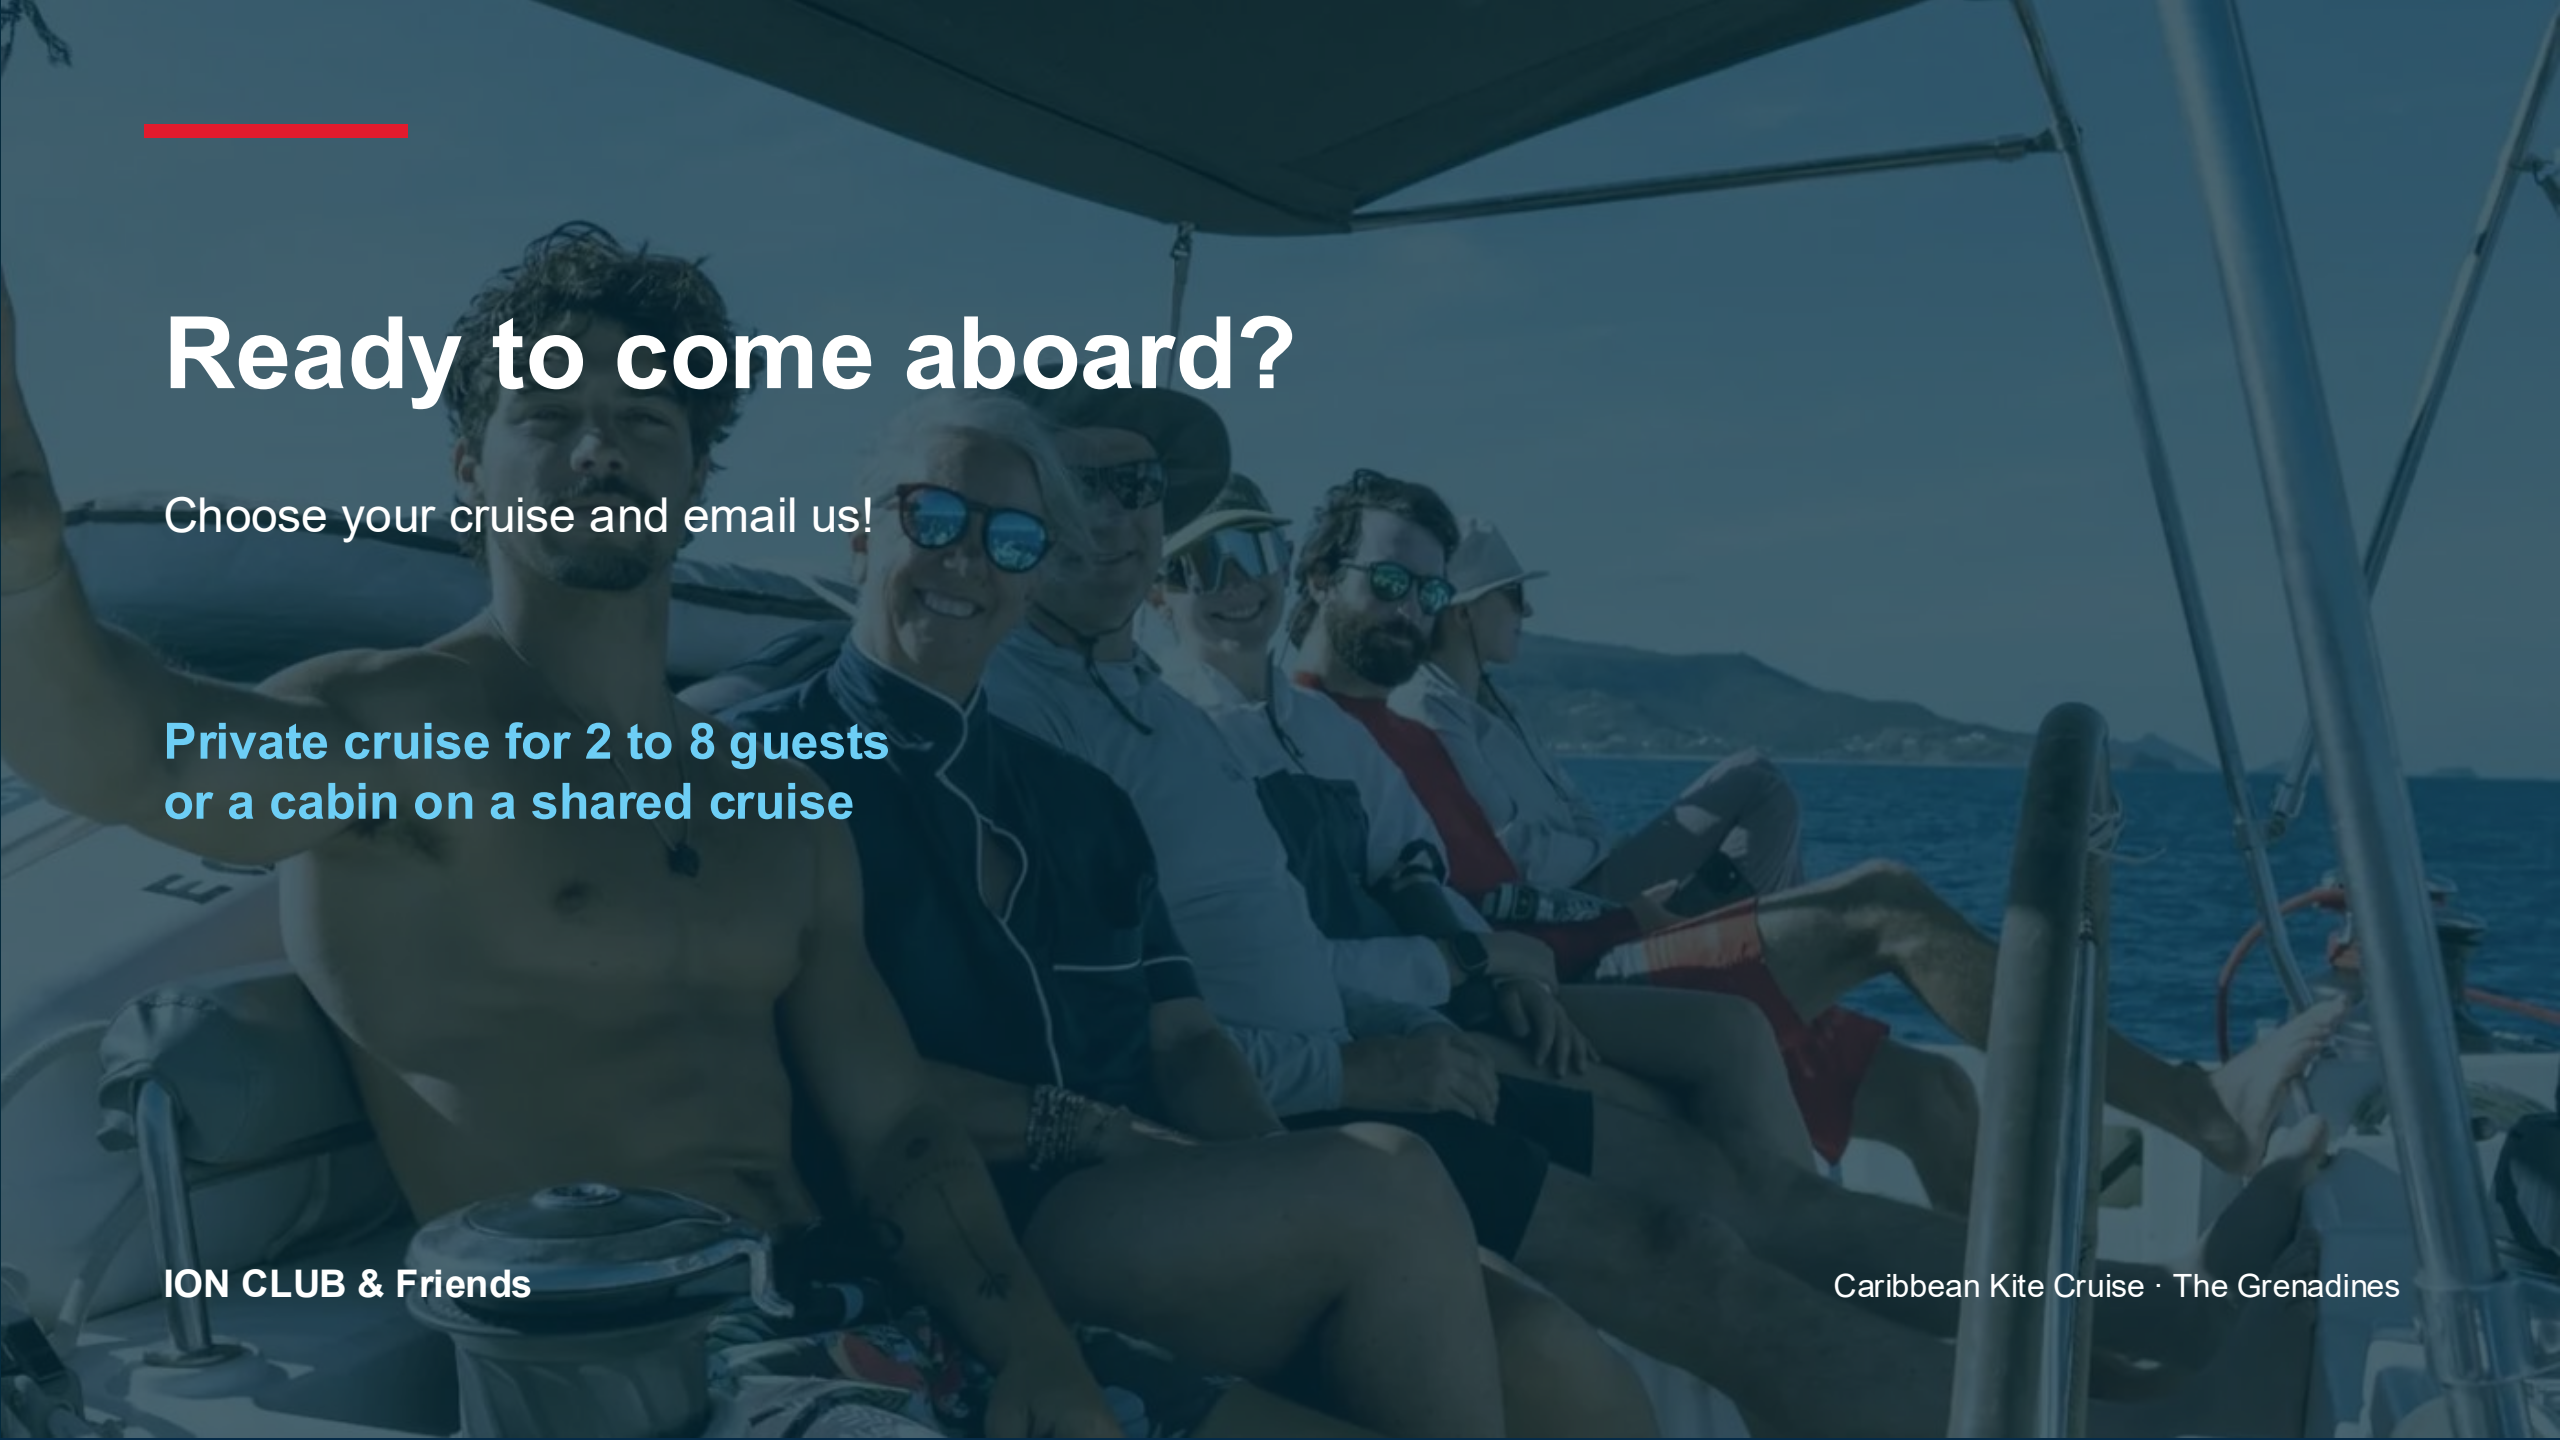

≈ 2.7 EC

US dollars are accepted almost everywhere in the Grenadines.

Bring enough cash

Withdraw cash at the airport or port for equipment rental, lessons, alcohol, souvenirs and other extras. ATMs in the Grenadines can be unreliable.
